

Motorcar Parts of America Announces Promotion and Appointment

May 21, 2019

LOS ANGELES, May 21, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Motorcar Parts of America, Inc. (Nasdaq: MPAA) today announced Rick Mochulsky, senior vice president of sales, will assume the additional responsibility of managing the marketing team across all product lines.

The company also announced the appointment of automotive industry veteran Mario Garza as assistant vice president of marketing. Garza most recently served as vice president of merchandising for XL Parts, headquartered in Houston, Texas. He previously held various positions with AutoZone, based in Memphis, Tennessee -- including merchandising, commercial and store operations.

"Rick's additional management responsibilities complement the company's strategic growth plans, and we look forward to benefiting from his sales and marketing leadership," said Selwyn Joffe, chairman, president and chief executive officer.

"Mario's broad automotive experience within the retail and traditional aftermarket further enhances the company's marketing programs and supports the company's growing line of high-quality product offerings," said Rick Mochulsky, senior vice president of sales and marketing.
